M.I. Graduate School of Missions

What is MIGSM?

Mission International Graduate School of Missions (MIGSM) is a Missionary training school to train and build up Servant Leaders through Discipleship & Leadership training in Theology and Missions.

MIGSM is an academic Institute and spiritual community in which all students; faculty and staffs share the responsibility for both individual and holistic growth. MIGSM offers residential, day scholar & distance studies. MIGSM provides hostel facilities for both girls and boys.

The hostels are under the administration of the Academic Dean and the Wardens. There are Wardens and Assistant Wardens to assist in the smooth running of the hostels. The hostel is a place where students coming from different backgrounds stay together.

Accreditation

MIGSM (Mission International Graduate School of Missions) is affiliated to Indian Institute of Intercultural Studies (2009).

MIGSM offers B.Th., M. Div. and Th. M. Courses.

MIGSM pursues to get affiliated to and accredited by ATA (Asia Theological Association).

M.I. Graduate School of Missions is a active member of Nagaland Theological Colleges Association (NTCA).

MIGSM is affiliated to AATA (Asia- Africa Theological Association) since 2019. (www.aa-ta.net).

MIGSM though MOU has exchange program with the United Bible University & Seminary in Los Angeles, USA. (2019). (websites: ubus. us)

History of M.I India

- M.I. started from Daegu City, in South Korea by Rev. Johnny Chun in 1978.
- M.I. Seoul, Korea started by Rev. Dr. Nam Sun Park (Paulah Kapfo) in 1992. In the early stages, M.I. focused on Campus Ministry & English Bible Study (KABS-Korean American Bible Study).
- M.I. developed its ministry as KAMS (Korea Africa Mission Support). Later on M.I. members grew through discipleship and Missionary training.
- M.I. India started in 2006 as Mission Centre through Spiritual camps, many young people were changed in their lives and committed themselves to work for God's Kingdom and Glory.
- MIGSM (Mission International Graduate School of Missions) started in 2009 and affiliated and Accredited to IIICS (Indian Institute of Intercultural Studies).

From the Principal's Desk

Dr. Kenny Kapfo (Principal MIGSM)

This beautiful Photo Album brings reminiscence, retrospection and reflection in our lives, so it's worth collecting and keeping photos of remarkable people, events and activities in a good and lasting album.

I deeply appreciate the Academic Dean and her team for their hard labor in bringing out the first MISGM and MIDS Graduation Album for the last.

I look forward to meeting many alumni of our school in near future through this noble project and for reconnecting, networking and partnership in the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ for God's glory and Kingdom.

Publishing Graduation Album of MIGSM & MIDS

Rev. Dr. Paulah Kapfo
(Academic Dean, MIGSM)

I give thanks, glory and honor to God for the guidance in making MIGSM & MIDS Graduation Album.

Photos are reflections of the past precious memories, unforgettable moments and important activities and events in the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. Through these photo collections of our beloved familiar faces, we remember and cherish the times we spent together in spiritual community life, Academic endeavors and practical ministry experiences. After so many years departure, who would vividly remember us? these photos remind us of our wonderful friends, lecturers, staff and even visitors who molded us and influenced our lives and inspired our dreams!

From 2012 to the year 2020, we had conducted the 9 MIGSM Convocations and have produced 43 graduates from B. Th. and 21 graduates from M. Div. (64 graduates) & 6 MIDS Convocation with 38 students since 2015. In total 102 students have successfully completed their courses from MIGSM & MIDS.

In obedience to God's calling, our alumni are now working in different mission fields, and many are pursuing higher studies. They are actively involved in various ministries as pastors, missionaries, tentmakers and staffs in different churches and schools.

May the Holy Spirit guide them and our Lord of the harvest direct them to serve Him faithfully in His purpose.

I hope and pray that through their strong commitment and devotional life, they will bear much fruit to save lost souls.

Dear graduates don't forget our School Motto "Being Discipled to Disciple".

The Epilogue

*It's time to depart from my familiar places
Dotted with mistakes and wanders
Passing the words over shoulders;
Graduation is commencement.*

*Standing on the empty ground, I see
A handful of sunlight shinning down
On big or small roofs,
And the stumps of time I've tamed are burning
This winter morning everything seems to be strange.*

*Suddenly untraceable memories fall
On this campus
I shall not forget the myth of Sisyphus.
Sad worthy and sleepless nights too
To find a poem, love and prayer.*

*Now, it's the time to soar like an angle
To water my cherish able flowers
To endure sufferings
To bring something anew*

*Tonight I will write or rewrite
The title of my poem
From epilogue to prologue*

Master of Divinity
(10th Feb. 2017)

Greetings to respected Principal and Academic Dean, all the Faculties, Administrators, all the Students, family members and dear friends, in the matchless name of our God almighty. I on behalf of all the graduating students would like to thank you all for your concern and valuable presence here to congratulate us on this auspicious day. I also express our heartfelt gratitude to all our teachers here, who always stood by us sacrificing themselves for the betterment of all the students, especially for the graduates today.

Personally speaking, my staying here in M.I. has been an immense blessing to me through the influence of my models, my teachers who shaped me in the way that I should go. Uncountable things I learnt from here for which reason I want to declare boldly that MIGSM and MIDS are very unique:

MIGSM and MIDS are unique in a way where not only academic excellence is focused but also spiritual excellence is strongly emphasized. It emphasized the whole being of a person, the spiritual life and personal relationship with God.

MIGSM and MIDS are special ; a faith-building centre where a person is build strong in faith as well as he is motivated to go out to build other weak souls. It builds oneself to build another, for which we carry the banner " Being disciple to disciple".

MIGSM and MIDS are unique in ways where a student is encouraged to develop the talents they have and use it for the glory of God. Student are encouraged to dig out the hidden talents they have within and to be trained more for the glory of His kingdom.

For all these reasons MIGSM & MIDS are unique.

As Graduates, on reaching this major milestone in our lives, today is at least a partial payday for all days, weeks, months and years that we have worked so hard. The early morning classes, the long night of study, the endless and sometimes tedious lectures, the thousands of pages of reading, hundred pages of writing, the discipline of living in the dorm and adjusting with other roommates, and paying our college bill. In few moments we received certificate in our hands I would remind that this little piece of paper speaks discipline, work, perseverance, achievement and success.

I thank God that He brought us to MIGSM and MIDS and has given us the grace and the opportunities.

As we leave this campus of learning, this chapel hall of Spiritual influence, our close friends and professors, and these grounds dedicated to God, let us keep our focus on Jesus as we go out to face our future and put our hands to the plow of God's work for His glory. We are going from here to write our own history-choice upon choice and decision after decision, a history to glorify God that someday it will be worth reading. We may need to take daily instruction at the feet of our Master with the meditation on God's word. We will need more than this degree we're receiving today to get through. We will need the presence and direction of pour Almighty God and there is only one way to get that presence and help. It is through a well cultivated prayer life.

Let's not forget these principles; when we rely upon organization, we will get what organization can do; when we rely upon education, we will get what education can do; when we rely upon eloquence, we will get what eloquence can do, and so no. but when we rely upon God, we will get what God can do. So let's rely on God through prayer without ceasing.

" come! Let us write a history by faithfulness and humility in the lord, seasoned with unceasing Prayer life".

Long live MIGSM and MIDS ..!!!

Graduation Message

Topic: "Know our Identity & Vocation in Christ" (1 Peter 2:9-10)

Speaker: Rev. Dr. Kyoung Soo Shin
Date: 10-02-2018

It is a great honor and blessing for me to share the word of God with all of you in this glorious graduation ceremony of MIGSM and MIDS. I am nothing but a small servant of Jesus from South Korea. When Dr. Kenny asked me to take over this task two years ago, as an old friend of Dr. Kenny and Dr. Paulah, I made up my mind happily to take over this important task of delivering message for this graduation ceremony.

First of all, I would like to congratulate on happy graduation of all graduates, who finished their studies successfully in their own courses; MIDS, B.Th., M.Div. and M. Th. here in MIGSM. Nevertheless, we know very well that graduation is not the end of our learning and researching process in our long life. We need to study and learn many things through every stage of our lives. In that sense, graduation is a kind of new leap for other higher stages. Whenever we go up to another level of life, we can learn much more than we could do before. In order to learn more which should be learnt in our life, we always should have a humble mind and spirit to study much deeper and wider learning. When we see in a long standpoint, we know that we are God's children who study in the lifetime school of God, by our heavenly teacher, the Holy Spirit, according to the guidance of the Bible, within the world created by God the creator.

Jesus' commission with very important duties as His disciples in relation to delivering the word of God to all over the world. What are those duties? We can simply summarize Jesus' mandate into two things: first, the great commandments related to our twofold love for God and our neighbours, and secondly, the great commission related to evangelism, making disciples, baptism and education in international as well as national dimensions.

First is Jesus' great commandment in Mt. 22:37-40. Jesus replies "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind; This is the first and the greatest commandment. Second is "Love your neighbour as yourself; all the Law's and the Prophets hang on these two commandments." These commandments are the summary of the Ten Commandments. Jesus summarized them just into two commandments. We do perform these two great commandments throughout our whole lives according to Jesus' holy commitment to us.

Second is Jesus' great commission in Mt. 28:18-20. Jesus said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." This commission mostly depends upon our act of going wherever God asks us to go. Because without going, nothing can happen. So we must go wherever God asks to go. We diligently have to fulfill Jesus' great commitment to us about mission and evangelism.

Then, could we complete Jesus' holy mandate? We need not work about it. Because Jesus already showed us how we do it. Jesus also did this great task through all his lifetime after he became a flesh as a God-man in this world.

We may summarize Jesus' 3 years ministerial works in his three ministries, namely teaching, preaching, and healing. He became our model through all his life, so that we can learn from Him everything that we have to and want to learn.

Jesus started his ministry in the world as a divine missionary from heaven above to the world. When he finished his 3-year public ministry on earth by his death on the cross, his burial, his resurrection, and his ascension to the right hand of God the Father, He sent us the Holy Spirit as a Paraclete, in order to make us successfully do these three ministries as Jesus did.

Here we need two things to do. First, we should try to resemble Jesus Christ in every way of our life. We should try hard in order to do exactly as Jesus did. We should also go where Jesus already went in advance. We should obey God as Jesus did. Secondly, we should be helped in all things by the Holy Spirit to accomplish all things deposited to us by Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit is another, yet the same paraclete as Jesus is in his divine nature. So the Holy Spirit knows all that Jesus taught and did in his whole public lifetime.

That's why Jesus said like this, "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another counselor to be with you forever- the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither seen him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you." (Jn.14:16-17). " But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you." (Jn.14:26)." When the Counselor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who gone out from the Father, he will testify about me. And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning,"(Jn.15:26-27).

Now the holy Spirit is always with us, helping us to do the same thing as Jesus already did during his public life. In addition to it, we have to remember that the Holy Spirit can help us to do even greater things than Jesus did. That's why Jesus said like this: "I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. and I will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. you may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it. If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever the Spirit of truth (Jn.14:12-17a).

We know very well that Jesus is always faithful and truthful. Thus as Jesus promised, the Holy Spirit came into the world in the day of Pentecost. Now the Holy Spirit is with us, within us, over us, and among us. We need not worry about following Jesus Christ because the holy Spirit, our heavenly counselor is with and helping us.

Let's remember these two things in mind. First, to follow and resemble Jesus in every way. Secondly, the Holy Spirit is with us and helping us in every moment as the same, yet another paraclete. The Holy Spirit is the spiritual source of holy, divine power, knowledge, and wisdom. So we always ask Him to pour Him wisdom, His knowledge, and His power down upon us. Then, we can live without fear, boldly go further to follow Jesus' holy mandate. Thus we can use the same method successfully that Jesus used, when He had done His ministry: teaching, preaching and healing.

Today's bible text is related to Paul's second imprisonment in Rome. He gave some pastoral instructions and guides to his spiritual son, young pastor Timothy became a Christian with his mother and maternal grandmother at Lystra through St. Paul's evangelism during his second mission trip. At that time, he served as a bishop at the church in Ephesus. Before he leaves for heaven by martyrdom at Rome, he wants to give his final words, namely his testament, to his loving son whom he gave birth to through his gospel-evangelism at Lystra. What are those words?

First, in this text, Paul emphasized that we should be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. How can we be strong in the grace of Christ Jesus? According to Paul's teaching, we can be strong only in the grace which is in Christ Jesus rather than an all kinds of human arguments, moral, philosophies, and so on. So we always stay in Jesus' grace. We should love Jesus' grace. We should be glad and rejoice in His grace. It cannot be replaced by any other things. Only grace in Jesus Christ can make us strong. So always we should long for Jesus' grace that He showed through his sacrificial life and vicarious death on the cross.

Second, in this text, Paul argued that we should be a good teacher of gospel, through whom gospel can be delivered continuously to next generations of faith one after another. In v.2, we find the existence of four generations of faith." And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others." The first generation is St. Paul himself, the second generation is Paul's disciple, Timothy, and the third generation would be other reliable men, and the fourth generation would be the others. Paul emphasized this process of delivery of gospel should be continued through generation by generation unceasingly.

In order for this process to be continued without cessation, there should be good teachers in all process of evangelism and education. To make this process to continue most powerfully, God called all students, all graduates to be, and all family members in order for them to learn a living gospel and to lead a new life in Jesus Christ. So we have to learn about all dynamic processes of delivery.

Thirdly, Paul reminded Timothy that we should have certain attitudes of a good soldier, an athlete, the hardworking farmer. Why did he ask Timothy to have these three attitudes. Let's ponder about it deeply.

First, Paul said, Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs- he wants to please his commanding officer." (2 Tim. 2:3-4)

Who and what is a good soldier? Why we should be a good soldier of Christ? And then how can we be a good soldier? Paul said, "Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs he wants to please his commanding officer." A good soldier of Christ is a strong soldier because Jesus Christ empowers and guides him. A strong soldier endures sufferings, and shares all kind of hardship with other soldiers. He does not just lay behind his calling. He does not shirk his duty.

He does not seek to escape the battle. He does not refuse to carry his load. He does not give in to the enemy. He does not deny the cause. He does not reject the commander. He does not hide from the toil.

A strong soldier also stands with the other soldiers and suffers the hardships of the struggle with them. He sacrifices all that he is and has for Christ and His cause.

He gives all of his mind, body, and soul to Christ and His cause of salvation.

He gives all of his time energy to Christ and His promise of eternal life.

He gives all of his money and possessions to Christ and His mission of world evangelism.

Thus the strong soldier of Jesus Christ suffers hardship no matter what the hardship is. He suffers hardship so that men and women, boys and girls may be saved from sin and starvation, evil and disease, corruption and emptiness, wrong doing and loneliness, depression and obsessions, dread and trauma, death and judgment through his faithful devotion.

So the bible says,

"All men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved." (Matt. 10:22).

"Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." (1Cor.15:58).

"Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses." (1 Tim.6:12).

"Blessed is the man who presence of under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him." (James 1:12)

A strong soldier does not become entangled with the affairs of day to day living. He stays focused upon the cause of Christ reaching a dying world with the message of life. Now he can have an abundant life in Jesus Christ. And he can live eternally, never tasting death. But he should note that he has to hear about the commander-in-chief who can give him this life. This is the task of the Christian soldier; this is the great cause of the Christian soldier. And the strong soldier never divert from this cause. He does not become entangles with the affairs of this world. His purpose is not to make money.

His purpose is not to indulge in the flesh. His purpose is not to focus upon this life.

His purpose is not to live in the pleasures of this world.

Because his purpose is rather to focus upon the campaign of Christ, of carrying forth the message of the king of kings, the message of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. What is that message? The message of eternal life, the message of eternal salvation. There is no greater purpose on earth than fighting to carry that message forth. So the strong soldier focuses upon his cause and not upon the world.

The Bible says,

"Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is his good, pleasing and perfect will." (Rom.12:2).

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." (1 John 2:15-16).

A strong soldier pleases or obeys his commander in chief. He seeks to please the king who has chosen him to be a soldier. A strong soldier focuses upon his commander and his words. He does not look to anyone else and anything else. He does not look to another commander because another commander is a false commander. He does not look to himself, seeking to satisfy the lust of his own desire. He does not look to other people who take away his love for God and waste his energies completely in other unimportant things. He does not look to those in the world who seek his energies and pleasures. Also, a strong soldier is loyal and committed to his commander in chief. He obeys his commander and focuses upon pleasing him and him alone.

Jesus said,

"not everyone who says to, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven." (Matt. 7:21).

"on the contrary, we speak as men approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please men but God, who tests our hearts." (1 Thes. 2:4).

"Do not let this book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful." (Joshua 1:8).

Secondly, Paul said, "Similarly, if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not receive the victor's crown unless he competes according to the rules." (2 Tim. 2:5).

What kind of instructions did Paul want to say with the conception of an athlete? We have to remember that while Paul was diligently at work of evangelism, he could have seen one or two of four Pan-Hellenic Games taking place on his mission trips.

The Olympic Games were a series of athletic competitions among representatives of city-states.

They were held in honor of Zeus, and the Greeks gave them a mythological origin. The games were held every four years, which became a unit of time in historical chronologies. The prizes for the victors were olive leaf wreaths or crowns.

The Pythian Games were held in honor of Apollo every four years at his sanctuary at Delphi. They were held two years after each Olympic Games. The winners received a wreath of bay laurel, sacred to Apollo, from the city of Tempe, in Thessaly.

Isthmian Games named after the Isthmus of Corinth, were held both the year before and the year after the Olympic Games (the second and fourth years of an Olympiad at Corinth. The Pythian Games were held in the third year of the Olympiad cycle, Probably Paul could see Isthmian Games between AD 51-52, because he stayed there during those days delivering God's messages for Christian community in Corinth..

The Nemean Games were held at Nemea every two years (or every third). The Nemean Games were held both the year before and the year after the Ancient Olympic Games and the Pythian Games in the third year of the Olympiad cycle. Like the Olympic Games, they were held in honor of Zeus.

The winners received a wreath of wild celery leaves from the city of Argos.

So he compared Christian life to a strong athlete's life. The Christian believer is to be like a strong athlete in the cause of Christ.

The athlete is strong in discipline and self-denial. Note the phrase "competes as an athlete" of verse 5.

The picture is that of a professional, well-trained athlete, a person who has dedicated his life-all that he is and has to the contest. The Christian is not to be an amateur in life; he is to be a professional.

The struggle is not a part-time affairs: it requires a full-time dedication, energy, and effort that the Christian athlete has. The Christian must go until he can go no more. He must go on in the same way a professional, well-trained athlete does, through discipline and self-control. The believer must be totally committed to live for Christ-every moment of every day.

He must be disciplined and controlled in mind, body, and soul. He may wish to indulge, but he must reject the temptation. He may desire to look, touch, taste, and have, but he must refuse and focus his thoughts and energies upon the race for Christ.

The Christian believer must seek Christ, to become more and more like Him, and he must seek to make Christ known to every man, woman, and child. No matter how he feels, the Christian believer must be disciplined and controlled every day of his life-disciplined and controlled in the worship of God through Bible study and prayer, and in bearing testimony to the glorious news of Christ Jesus our Lord the glorious news of life eternal.

The athlete strives lawfully, or else he is disqualified from the contest. This is critical to know; it is the very point at which so many people fail. It is not enough to declare that one is entering the contest, nor is it enough to begin running the race. A person has to compete as an athlete lawfully. The famous commentator of New Testament, Kenneth Wuest says:

"The Greek athlete was required to spend ten months in preparatory training before the contest. During this time he had to engage in the prescribed exercises and live a strictly separated life in regard to the ordinary and lawful pursuits of life, and he was placed on a rigid diet. Should he break training rules, he would...be a castaway (1 Cor. 9:27), adokimos in Greek 'disqualified, barred from engaging in the athletic contest' (The Pastoral Epistles, Vol.2, p. 1291). Any person who wishes to enter the Christian contest has to obey the rules laid down by the official of the contest. That official is the Lord Jesus Christ, the very Son of God Himself. What are the rules? Just simple. A person must believe in Christ. A person must follow Christ, that is, obey the Word of God. That's only rules Christians should follow and obey. When they become faithful to the rules and obey the Word of God thoroughly, they will get their prizes as Paul said,

"Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last, but we do it to get a crown that will last forever. Therefore I do not run like a man running aimlessly, I do not fight like a man beating the air. No, I beat my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize." (1 Cor. 9:24-27).

"I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:14). "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing" (2 Tim 4:7-8).

Hebrews contains similar line covering the same intent, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." (Hebrews 12:1-2).

Thirdly, Paul said, "The hardworking farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops." (2 Tim. 2:6). What did Paul want to say to us with the concept of the hardworking farmer?

The word "labor" (kopiaō) means labor that is diligent, laborious, exhausting. It is the picture of a farmer who toils to the point of becoming weary, so tired that he cannot put one foot in front of the other.

Let's pay attention here to the most significant point: it is the diligent farmer who arduously labors who labors to the point of exhaustion that shall be the first to partake of the fruit. The slothful farmer is the last to receive the reward of his harvest and fruit, and never bears a full harvest, and never receives the reward of a full harvest.

The reason is because the slothful farmer either plants less seed or plants later than he should. And he never weeds or harvests the fields like he should. The point here is this: It is the diligent farmer who shall be the first to be rewarded. He shall be the first to partake of the fruit of the harvest.

The point comes true of the Christian believer as well. The diligent believer shall be rewarded first by God; that is, he shall be given greater reward by God.

Paul also said strongly,

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad." (2 Cor. 5:10).

"For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, his work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work. If what he has built survives, he will receive his reward. If it is burned up, he will suffer loss; he himself will be saved, but only as one escaping through the flames.

" (1 Cor. 3:11-15).

"Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." (1 Cor. 15:58).

"Be patient, then, brothers, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop and how patient he is for the autumn and spring rains. You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near." (James 5:7-8).

Thus, Paul emphasized the importance of Christian life as a good teacher of the Bible, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus, as a well-trained athlete of the kingdom of God, and finally as a hardworking farmer in God's vineyard. We all were called by God our Redeemer to live a successful Christian life according to His teachings in His grace. Maybe we have lived very successfully according to such wonderful instructions.

But some others might not have lived their life as successfully as Jesus commanded. Now is the very time to make up our mind to follow Jesus with a new mind and a new heart.

Now I will conclude this sermon as Paul said, "Reflect on what I am saying, for the Lord will give you insight into all this." (2 Tim. 2:7). Our final destination is not the worldly thing. It is not in this world. Our ultimate destination is the eternal kingdom of heaven. So someday we shall go back to our eternal home in heaven. Till then we should run and run diligently without giving up our faith at all.

May God bless you all the graduates who take part in this glorious place, who did their best to finish their academic courses successfully. I would like to, above all, thank our Triune God for what He has done so far for M.LGSM and all the graduates. I would also like to bless and congratulate our President, Dr. Kenny Kapfo, and Academic.

Dean, Dr Paulah, all the professors, and all the staffs, who have exerted their all efforts in their teachings, in their serving, and in their prayers, et cetera. The school has produced so many graduates of distinguished talent for kingdom of God, and also I would like to send a congratulatory words and greetings to all graduates' family members and especially to their parents who helped them with sincere, incessant prayers, enduring love, and all types of financial supports. Great praise and honor be to our Lord! Hallelujah!

We give thanks to God for believing in Jesus and became the children of God. Especially today MIDS:4 students, B.Th. 8 students and M.Div.5 students, in total 17 students graduated from MIGSM and M.I. Discipleship School and received God's special calling and election.

I wholeheartedly congratulate on your meaningful graduation convocation after some courses of training as ministers.

Our Lord who led you until this far will be more pleased to see you and say, my proudful son and daughter!

Now you came forward one more step to be used by God as a man of God.

From today I hope you will have confidence of being a man of God fully belong to God.

Can you follow me? I am a man of God' I became fully committed to God?

Let's congratulation on their graduation, all who joined, precious family and friends.

"We congratulation on your splendid graduation"

"You are precious men of God."

Therefore from now on 17 soldiers of Christ must stand on the side of God at anytime and anywhere.

You must represent the mind of Jesus, speak and act in the name of Jesus.

Give always thanks to Rev. Dr. Kenny Principal and Rev. Dr. Paulah, Academic Dean and staff & professors.

Principal Rev. Dr. Kenny has good character. He is a rake man. He is like a father. All the students respect him.

Academic Dean, Rev. Paulah loves students too much. In every work, her hand stay their.

Two of them pray the longest time everyday and try to walk by the guidance of the Holy Spirit every moment. They are the leader God himself leads.

I am also proud of M.I. all staff working together with them.

This couple will guide them to go into next step and intercede for them continuously. God will repay for their hard labor but let's express our thanksgiving.

"Principal! Academic Dean thank you so mush."

"Professors! All staff! You did a good job."

"I will never forget your grace."

For parents, brother, sister and visitors, give thanksgiving greetings later personally.

The true way to repay the grace you received is to preach the Gospel, to teach the word, to revive and to build up, many souls.

Today I want to share the grace on the topic "Reviving Jesus, Reviving Holy Spirit" from the text. Romans 8:1-2

Today scripture portion emphasizes the faith of Jesus.

We must be always in the faith to believe in Jesus.

Because the power of reviving the Holy Spirit in Christ helps us to win the victory.

"Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death.." (Rom. 1:2)

1. To be in Jesus is to be in the faith of Savoir Jesus.
 God gave me Matt.16:16 For many years, whenever I prayed I remembered this word.
 "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
 To believe in Jesus as Lord is faith.
 To Lord and master of our life must be changed.
 To believe in Jesus as Christ and savoir is faith.
 If we believe in Jesus, we also must believe in His word.
 The gospel is to believe in Jesus, his cross and resurrection.
 The good news is also the word of the Lord, so when we hear, meditate and take to heart.
 Faith comes out. Believe in Jesus with all your heart.
 So I bless you all to love Jesus and His word.

2. To be in the faith means to live by the faith.
 The faith which can be accompanied by life doesn't have strength and power.
 Jesus carried out our sins, curses, sicknesses and hearts pains on the cross to save us.
 He planted his life like seed and bears fruit through us.
 This is God's great plan and the expression of ultimate love for human beings.

If we have any sin, we have to repent immediately our sins and wash them by the blood of Jesus.

We have to repent our own sins, the sins of our parents and fore fathers. If we follow the law of blessing by giving tithes and live holy lives through the world and prayer.

We can follow the law of blessing lives.

We have to proclaim everyday with these words.

"I am a child of God. I am righteous. I received blessings. I take after the character of Jesus."

If we proclaim them repeatedly, we can move in action.

By our action we will receive blessings.

When we devote ourselves to evangelism, we don't have time to commit sins and we will experience much grace.

I bless you to put into action with the word," The righteous will live by faith."

3. Look to Jesus and imitate Jesus.
 Then we will be changed like Jesus in heaven.
 When we do righteous acts of God, the white clothes will be prepared.
 Then we will be clothed with the wedding garment as the bride of Jesus. We can meet our Lord who will come again. We also must find the dream God given and discoverer our vision. Pray for the dream the sun, the moon and the stars bowed down before him. He was disappointed by the situation and didn't lose hope until it was accomplished.
 Even though he was sold out as a slave, he did all his best, so God was with him. What ever he did, wherever he went, he was successful. Even in prison, his heart was n changed. Finally he became a chief governor and saved all Israel.
 Pray persistently and receive the vision from God.
 Run to your vision until it is fulfilled.

4. Be led by the Holy Spirit.

If we are in Jesus, we are led by the Holy Spirit. Then we can keep our faith and revive many souls. We can cut off the law of sin and death. The Holy Spirit gives the word and answer how to act in all circumstances. If we accept the guidance and the challenge of the Holy Spirit, and works.

Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is freedom (2 Cor.3:17).

1. The Spirit gives us impression and wishes.

Listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit. Phil.2:13 for it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose.

I was so thankful to God who saved me, so I wanted to repay his grace. God gave me the desire to evangelize; therefore I try to bring lost souls to Jesus Christ.

2. The Holy Spirit speaks to you directly or reminds you of the words of god. He guides you personally.

John 13:26 but the counsellor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. Focus on God's will and wait for His appointed time.

3. God answers us through dream to become the father of all nations and Abraham followed God' word. He faced famine, lost his wife but found again. As his faith grew, if God wanted, he was willing to sacrifice even his son. He had the faith that God would raise his son again even though he died.

I also experienced God's miraculous helping hands to appear English exam after 15 years gap. In my dream, I saw the "Green signal" to go forward. So I prayed to God before test, and God reminded me of my former studies.

4. The Holy Spirit uses other persons to speak or to give answers.

At ordinary times, if we accumulate Bible study and much prayer, when we need, God gives us His words and solves our problems. For 3 years, 6 times God provided my school fees in a very surprising way.

We must decide to obey to the answers of the Holy Spirit. We have to work together with Spirit.

Conclusion

God is the Spirit and He needs our body.

The almighty God wants to work with us through His Holy Spirit. This is the most precious law of life to save people.

When we depend on Him, various gifts of the Holy Spirit are manifested. With God's great love, the power of the Holy Spirit to revive life is with you. We have to ask God to keep our faith moment by moment.

Let's shout loudly." God, I am here."

"By the great power of the Holy Spirit, use me."

Check and examine yourself whether you are always in Jesus in faith in grace and in the word.

With the Spiritual authority to save life, revive yourself and others to the end.

In the name of Jesus, I bless all of you!

Good morning to you all. Respected Speaker, faculty and staff of MIGSM & MIDs, families. Well wishers and fellow graduates present here today.

I am honoured and humbled to stand here speaking to you all on this special occasion. And so I would like to begin with a quote- "One of the greatest gifts you can give to yourself, right here right now in this single, solitary, monumental moment in your life, is to decide without apology to commit to the journey and not to the outcome."

There are a few important days in our life and graduation is certainly one of them and so I take this time to congratulate the class of 2020 on successfully graduating today. For this is the day we all had dreamed about since the very first day we got enrolled at MIGSM & MIDS. I praise and thank our Almighty God for His immeasurable love and leading hand whereby, we are able to graduate today. A big thank you to our parent, families, churches, sponsors, lecturers and mentors for all their labours and supports through our theological studies. Not forgetting Dr. Kenny and dr. Paulah Kapfo for all that they have done for us. What we are today is what they have motivated us to be. Therefore, this day is a true celebration of the efforts of our parents in raising us in the fear of the Lord, lecturers in educating us in every possible way, mentors and role models in inspiring and encouraging us to strive forward. Though we may not able to thank each individual in person, it is our humble desire that we will remember often in our daily prayers.

We, as graduates are rightly very proud of ourselves today, knowing that the good experiences we got here do not imply that we did not face our share of discomforts and challenges, but it is in those things that made us strong and more confident today. The fact we all come together as co-workers in God's field is a testament to how far we have come. Based on that, we see God's faithful hand is evident, as he brings out the best in us through our journey of learning and helping us to strive forward for His mission.

Graduation Address: 2020

The significance of today is also that it marks the end of our time together at MIGSM & MIDS. Since for some, this is time to say goodbye to M.I. family and go forth with the knowledge and abilities we are trained for. So as we move on, let us remember the two principles we are taught; the Principle of Freedom and the Principle of Success, for the whole new world of personal freedom waits us to become the next makers of History.

Graduation is not an end goal in itself. Rather it is a part of the larger journey of life, so our graduation serves as launching point, projecting us to the world with the ball in our hands to transform the lives of our families, communities and humanity. Therefore, before I step down from here, I take this moment to not only challenge the graduates but everyone present here today. The world is dying without Jesus and is in need of you and me to reach out to them. Many are yet to hear the message of hope for the hopeless, rest for the weary. Freedom for the captives and life for the dying that was brought by Jesus 2000 more than years ago. Are you willing to take up this challenge ahead of us? For sure we will be challenged at times and wonder if we can make it, but remember, God being the sole author of our life will stand with us and help us to do great things for his glory. May the God who called us into His mission be the God who stands with us all through our lives as we continue to present Jesus, the light of the World to the whole world.

Once again well done and hats off to the Class of 2020, I salute your outstanding efforts and performances. Graduation is a wonderful day! Let's enjoy the tremendous gift called freedom and stay accountable to God because that's the only way to maximize our potential for success.

To God be the glory!

Thank you and God Bless you all!

“ And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualifies to others” (2 Tim.2:2)
(Acts.20:32;Col.3:22-24)

On this very special, grateful and meaning day, from our deep hearts, we give thanks to God for calling, training, molding and building you up as God’s servant.

Don’t forget the precious time we spent together as a spiritual family in M.I. India (MIGSM & MIDS). As you move out toward another higher ground today, we hope and pray that your intimate relationship with the Lord will grow.

Ten Things To Do

1. Be a man of God and of the Holy Spirit.
2. Be led by the Holy Spirit and obey Him.
3. Have a daily devotion faithfully.
4. Ready the Bible three hours a day.
5. Pray more than 3 hours a day.
6. Evangelize 3 persons a day.
7. Be a useful tool for God’s kingdom.
8. Love God and the people wholeheartedly.
9. Teach, preach and heal all over the world.
10. Be a person of faith, wisdom and service.

Distinguished Guest Speaker, Respected Principal, Academic Dean, Faculty members, and dear family members and everyone present here.

I bring greeting's to you on behalf of the graduating students in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Today is a very special day and it is my pleasure to deliver farewell speech on behalf of out going students. Each one of you has made tremendous impact on us; I take exquisite delight to address you reminiscing our stay here.

Let me begin by giving glory and honor to our God Almighty, because it is for Him that we have this day. Looking back I clearly recall how our life had been molded. Our passions for the Lord have been ignited as we have this important occasion.

I sincerely convey our immense gratitude to the institution and the faculty for the valuable investments they have made in our lives through all the academic exercises, discipline life, ministerial opportunities, and the spiritual atmosphere on campus that shall sustain us in our ministry.

You have been unimaginable instruments in making us the way we are today.

The year gone by had given us beautiful memories that will always be cherished in our hearts. We earnestly pray that this institution will continue to equip many more lives for God's Kingdom.

Graduation is not an end in itself. Instead it is a part of higher journey of life. Life is a journey and all the accomplishments we achieve during its course should be taken as starting point for further achievements. As such we don't stop growing but continue to grow and learn new things or skills that we will carry with us for the rest of our lives.

Life is in many significant ways like driving. We are free to choose keeping the further in mind but not every option will take us where God would want us to go. We just have to listen and understand the still voice of God as Prov.16:9 says," In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps."

We can choose to live in anyway and there's freedom in that. But Prov.14:12 says,
"There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death."

In order to remain truly free we must learn how to balance our personal choices with the Biblical principles, live our lives to the fullest, mindful that we all will someday give an account to God for our actions. Let's stay accountable to God because that is the only way to determine our success.

Give your best. Do your best. Get the best. Once again thank you and God bless you all.

Miss Khrietseituonuo
(Master of Divinity)
4th Feb. 2022

At the outset I give thanks and praise to God.

Respected Principal, Dean, Professors, teachers, distinguished guests, friends and families, and my fellow graduates of 2022, I feel honored and humbled to address you on behalf of the graduates.

Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love Him.(James 1:12)

As the verse says, our lives will be full of obstacles as we keep moving forward. We have the choice to do good things and to keep on doing better. It is by living according to God's words, there is an assurance of blessings.

I take this privilege to express my profound congratulations to all the graduates of 2022.

We may proudly say that "we did well". To our teachers who illuminated our minds, the administrators, pastors, members of our churches, and families, who have been supportive of this college, we would all like to thank you deeply. Without your encouragement, support, and prayers, it would not have been as smooth as it was.

One of the main things I have learned here is to reach the few or the many, wherever it may be, to collectively spread the Gospel. As we graduate today it is indeed a step forward and a leap higher in our journey of life. Consequently, it is also a further step ahead to focus deeper in our commitment to share the Gospel, because, in the larger picture, this is a broadened opportunity for us all, whether it is for our engagement in further studies or in ministerial commitment. May God continue to guide and lead us for His plan and purpose.

To God be the Glory!

Graduation Address: 2023

Respected Principal, Academic Dean, Professors, Speaker, teachers, distinguished guests, families and friends, I'm honoured and privileged to address the congregation on behalf of the graduates of 2023. On this very exciting and phenomenal day, I give all glory and honour to our almighty God.

Viletuonuo Thepa
(M.Div.)

At the outset, I would like to thank all the professors and teachers for their tireless teaching throughout our studies. I sincerely ask all the graduates to stand up and join me to take a bow as a sign of profound respect for our teachers.

I would like to congratulate all my fellow class of 2023, the graduates of M.I Graduate School of Missions and M.I Discipleship School. We may proudly declare that "We did well". All the hard work has finally paid off and we're all ready to take the next step in life beyond our studies here.

I extend our heartfelt gratitude to our professors and teachers for sharing your expertise in your respective fields. Words are not enough to convey my deepest gratitude to you. You illuminated our minds. Special thanks to the administrators, pastors, members of our churches, sponsors and families who have been supportive of this college. Without your prayers and support, it would not have been as smooth as it was.

My stay here has been an outstanding with my professors, teachers and friends. We are also raised in faith under the spiritual arms of Rev. Dr. Kenny Kapfo and Rev. Dr. Paulah Kapfo, I have been raised with the delightful education in the knowledge of God to spread the good news to the world.

During our studies here we faced a lot of uncertainties however we fought hard and worked hard to accept the challenges before us. Today, the gathering of our class in this hall is a proof that we all succeeded. And with that, once again many congratulations to my fellow graduates. A job well done!

As we graduate today, we are all moving towards a new chapter of our life. It is indeed, a higher step for all of us in our journey of life, faith and service to share the gospel wherever we are, whether we go for our higher studies or involve in ministries. May God continue to guide and lead us for His plan, purpose and His glory.

I would like to end my speech with a quote from Hellen Keller, "keep your face always towards the sunshine, and the shadows will fall behind you". In the midst of the darkness that surrounds us, may we all move forward with hope and remember all the lessons we had learned from M.I India. Once again, congratulations to the class of 2023. Thank you everyone.

To God be the Glory

M.I. Discipleship School

What is MIDS?

M. I. Discipleship School (MIDS) started as M.I. Vision School in 2010 and developed as M.I. Discipleship School in 2012.

Under MIVC we have MIDS which teaches people how to work, serve and influence the society, with specific skills to solve problems of unemployment and poverty in the country.

M.I. Vocational Centre got the Certificate of Registration No. h/rs -5192 dated 06/02/09, from the Home Department, Nagaland Kohima, under the program registration societies.

MIDS pursues to train and build up Spiritual leaders and Tentmakers. It has been training committed young men and women to become faithful workers and disciples of Jesus Christ.

This school has 1 or 2 years course and a platform to guide them as a Pre-Theology course to prepare for M.I. Graduate School of Missions (MIGSM).

MIDS course includes Biblical studies, Discipleship, English, Community Health Development, Christian Education and different talent training such as Guitar, Piano, Drum and Korean language.

Common activities like Morning Devotion, Personal Prayer, Evangelism, Worship, Social Work, Students' Fellowship and Outreach Ministry are held.
